Farmingville, NY - On May 17, Supervisor Ed Romaine visited a number of locations where volunteers were pitching in to make Brookhaven cleaner during the 7th Annual Great Brookhaven Clean Up. The event, which was co-sponsored by the Town of Brookhaven's Department of Waste Management and Keep America Beautiful, Inc., drew over 2,200 volunteers. It is part of a national effort that draws millions of volunteers in more than 15,000 communities across America who come together to pick up litter, renew parks, and clean miles of roadway, rivers, lakes, and seashore.

"The Great Brookhaven Clean-up gives residents the opportunity to join with their neighbors and make a difference in their community," said Supervisor Romaine. "I thank all the volunteers who understand that keeping Brookhaven clean is everyone's responsibility."

"Thank you to all those volunteers who took time out of their busy schedules to help clean up their communities. Because of your efforts the Great Brookhaven Clean Up is always a tremendous success," said Councilwoman Connie Kept.
